Warner Brothers Report

We found that Warner Brothers has not made a drama film since the beginning of this data collection. We also found that dramas receive a higher proportion of best picture nominations than any other genre.

- Our recommendation is to Warner Brothers to increase their production of drama films.

Nominated films that are dramas: 77 percent

Non-nominated films that are dramas: 46 percent item[] Warner Bros films that are dramas: 0 percent

Through linear regression, we found that films that get nominated for best picture are on average 28 minutes longer than other films.

- We recommend Warner Brothers to make longer films!
